

Case Study - GHD

GHD are one of the UK's most successful and fastest growing companies. The GHD hair styler range is recognised as the market leader by both consumers and professionals alike.

Glenelg have provided a full design service for GHD since the companies inception, designing the complete range of styling irons as well as a number of accessories and displays. We continue to work closely with GHD to ensure the product range holds it position as the UK's number one.
