

Project Management

Glenelg can oversee, to the point of manufacture, all aspects of the work program.

Glenelg is often called upon to manage the design and commercialisation of the project for our clients, in most instances liaising with the clients Project Manager. This can involve the arrangement of quotations, liaison with toolmakers, tool trials, production line trials, and any other requirements the client may express.

